

I live in Indiana and have been very happy with Indiana's rule for telemarketers. Our name is on the "no call" list and we are now able to enjoy dinner without interruption by telemarketers. I would encourage you to allow Indiana's law to remain intact, i.e. to allow the state law to be more restrictive to telemarketers than the federal law.

Thank you.